To Whom It May Concern:

I have had the pleasure of working with John Ironside several times in the past.

During these experiences I found him to be motivated, hard working, and insightful. He performs solidly as a team player and always looks for solutions to production roadblocks as they arise. These are the qualities I value most in a trusted crew member. Not only do I intend to hire John as a freelancer in the future, I look forward to the prospect.

I wish John all the best in whatever endeavour he pursues.

Sincerely
